

THE ROMANIAN ACADEMY
THE YEARBOOK OF THE "„GHEORGHE ȘINCAI" INSTITUTE FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES AND THE HUMANITIES

II/1999

Content

List of Authors.....5

The Anniversary of UNESCO. Dimitrie Cantemir

Virgil Căndea, The Universal Dimension of Dimitrie Cantemir's Work	7
Ovidiu Pecican, Dimitrie Cantemir between Allegory and Tale: two Ways of Narrating History	11
Pompiliu Teodor, Dimitrie Cantemir and Samuil Micu. Contributions to the History of the Romanian Enlightenment	27
Grigore Ploeșteanu, The Reception of Dimitrie Cantemir's Work „The History of the Ottoman Empire”, in the German Cultural and Scientific World (18th Century - beginning of the 19th Century)	42

Ecclesiastical History and Religious Life

Lucian Periș, The Byzantine Church and the Occident in the Period of the Florentine Council and in the Post-Florentine Period. Historiographic Observations	69
Simona Floruțău, Aspects of the Catechetical Message at the Beginning of the 18th Century. „The Children's Bread” (Bălgrad, 1702)	80
Ovidiu Ghitta, The Apostasy or about the Way with no Return	92
Greta Monica Miron, Greek Catholicism and Orthodoxy in Transylvania in the Second Half of the 18th Century. Reference Points in Defining the Idea of Tolerance	104
Corina Teodor, A Polemic Spirit: Alexandru Sterca Șuluțiu	116
Virgil Pană, Several Perspectives on the Orthodox-Anglican Dialogue (1935-1936)	127

Political Elite – Cultural Elite

Dan Berindei, The Romanian Political Elite in the Second Half of the 19th Century	136
---	-----

Dorina Rusu, Some Data Referring to the Studies of the Members of the Romanian Academy (1866-1918)	146
Cornel Sigmirean, Aspects of the Romanian Students' Daily Life at the Universities from Austria-Hungary	162
Simion Costea, Virgil Madgearu and Grigore Gafencu, Two Intellectuals with a European Formation - Exponents of Romania's Strategy of Economical Central-European and Pan-European Integration	175

Image of the Other

Carmen Andraş, The Image of the Other. Dominant Aesthetic Values and Ideas in the British Travellers' Journals Referring to the Romanian Countries (The 18th - 19th Centuries)	191
Olosz Katalin, Zajzoni Rab Istvan's travel to Bucharest in the summer of 1851	205
Daniel Boroş, The Image of Carol I Seen by the Romanians. The First Years of Reign (1866-1878)	217
Nicoleta Sălcudeanu, Abhorrence as self-image	228

Local History – Regional History

Simon Zsolt, Unpublished Privilege Documents of the Town of Târgu Mureş	236
Ioan Chiorean, Szabó Nicolae, Property relations and social categories involved in peasant agriculture in the Transylvanian Plain between 1700-1848	261

Miscellanea

Adrian Husar, The Survival of the Celtic Tradition	296
Maria Radosav, The Jewish Book and Print in the 17th and 20th Centuries in Transylvania. A Historiographical Approach	306
Iulian Boldea, Comparatism and Critical Phenomenology	317

Reviews and reading notes	321
--	-----

Research activity of the „Gheorghe Şincai” Institute for the Social Sciences and the Humanities in 1999	374
--	-----

Remember	378
-----------------------	-----